County Project Achievement

February 8th was cloverleaf project achievement at the Athens Clarke County Extension/4-H facility and a great group of 5th and 6th grade students came out for the competition. These students have a chance to compete at the district competition at South Jackson Elementary school on March 22nd,

The judges were very impressed with the demonstrations at the competition! Good luck to all the students who plan to compete in March!

Please remember to return your forms on time to Ms. Conway at the 4-H office if you want to compete: Transportation Form, Medical Form, and Code of Conduct Form!
