Drop Off

1. Arrive at 8am to North Murray Ag Center on Monday, July 8. (Eat breakfast prior to arrival)
2. Leave luggage in car.
3. Check in inside at registration table. Find out what bus to put luggage on.
4. Turn in any prescription medications or make any emergency changes
 - Not everyone will turn in medications
 - All meds should be in original prescription bottles and packed in a zip lock bag with your child's name and medicine form inside Ziplock
5. Make sure to say your good-byes!!
 - Last chance for restroom break.
 - Load luggage onto back of assigned bus.
 - Get on and stay on assigned bus.

Remember lunch money will be handed out upon arrival at the Chick-fil-A (Day 1 envelope)

Pick Up

1. We will return to North Murray Ag Center on Friday, July 12th close to 3pm.

* Remind 101 message will confirm time.

2. We will be stopping for lunch on the way home at the Varsity in Kennesaw.

3. Report to van to sign out your child. If you are picking up more than just your child, we need to know and you need to sign out that child as well.

4. Collect your child and take them home with you!! We love them, but not as much as you do 😊

5. Remember to get all luggage, bedding, and medication before leaving.

What do I pack?

- A list is provided for you in the parent packet

We all have a choice...

And things usually work out better when we choose to be peaceful.

Remember, living peacefully means respecting ourselves and others, working together to get things done, and caring about one another.

Peace begins with me.

Rules and Discipline

What could start trouble at summer camp?

Rules and Discipline

Trouble Stoppers:

- Calm down.
- Let's work this out.
- Walk away.
- Ask for help from adult or teen leader
- Use friendly words
 - Please
 - Thank you
 - I am sorry
 - You are doing a good job

4-H Code of Conduct

Signed by parent AND 4-H youth attending camp

Virtual form

NOTE: Signing this form means you actually reviewed the material and will be held accountable for the contents of this document

*If a camper violates these policies, UGA police may be contacted and you may be required to come get your camper at your expense.

Camp is a privilege and campers are expected to behave appropriately while at camp.

GEORGIA 4-H CODE OF CONDUCT

4-H'ers Name: _____ County: _____

Address: _____ Phone: _____

School: _____ Grade: _____ Year: _____

BEHAVIOR STANDARDS
 The Georgia 4-H Code of Conduct is valid for one year and applies to all activities coordinated through Georgia 4-H.

- 4-H'ers are expected to attend all sessions as part of a planned program exhibiting positive character and behavior including (but not limited to) trustworthiness, responsibility, respectfulness, caring, citizenship and fairness.
- 4-H'ers are expected to be responsive to the reasonable requests of leaders and respectful of the needs for their personal safety and the safety of others.
- 4-H'ers should dress appropriately, use appropriate language and respect the rights of others.
- 4-H'ers may not behave recklessly or in a manner which prohibits others from participating in the program in the manner attended.
- 4-H'ers may have access to technology at UGA/CES offices and facilities. Technology use is for educational purposes. 4-H'ers may not access inappropriate websites or materials.
- Realizing these guidelines are not "all inclusive" the University of Georgia Extension staff and volunteers reserves the right to make adjustments to these policies.

CONSEQUENCES OF MISBEHAVIOR
 4-H'ers and adults who observe a breach in the Code of Conduct must report the misbehavior to the appropriate leader. The leader will complete an incident report and determine the next steps regarding the incident.

If 4-H'ers are found participating in actions listed below, law enforcement or other legal authorities may be notified and may lead the review and consequences related to the incident. In these incidents, 4-H'ers may be removed from the event and suspended or expelled from future 4-H participation. These behaviors may include, but are not restricted to:

- Possession or use of illegal drugs
- Possession or use of a weapon
- Assault or harassment
- Inappropriate sexual behavior

If the 4-H'er is found participating in the actions listed below, 4-H leaders may be notified and may lead the review and consequences related to the behavior. 4-H'ers misbehaving will have the opportunity to explain their actions to leaders in charge of the activity and may request a review board. The person coordinating the event may also convene a review board for the purposes of determining what has occurred and what disciplinary action should be taken. A review board will consist of one Extension faculty or staff member, two volunteers and three 4-H members. The Extension faculty member coordinating the event will serve as chairperson. In some cases, incidents are deemed serious and may be referred to law enforcement or other legal authorities.

If the 4-H'er receives consequences from the leader or through the review process, his/her parents/guardians may be notified; the 4-H'er may be sent home at the parents' expense and may be suspended from participation in 4-H events. Suspensions may be up to one year. If a 4-H'er wishes to appeal the decision of the review board, the 4-H'er must appeal in writing through the County Extension office. Appeals must be filed within 30 days of notification of the disciplinary action. The appeal is sent to the Program Development Coordinator of the 4-H member and the State 4-H Leader for ruling by the State 4-H Leader. Following any disciplinary review, the person coordinating the activity will provide written notification to the appropriate parties including but not limited to the 4-H'er, his/her parent/guardian and his/her county Extension faculty member.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Breaking curfew or disturbing the peace Unexcused absences from the activities or premise of an event Unauthorized use of vehicles during the event Reckless or inappropriate behavior Use of foul or offensive language Possession or use of alcohol or tobacco 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Breach of the 4-H Code of Ethics Remaining in the presence of those who are breaking the 4-H Code of Conduct Theft, misuse or a abuse of public or personal property Possession of fireworks

Living Together Peacefully at 4-H Camp Contract

I will do my part to make 4-H Camp a peaceful time by:

- Working with others to get the job done.
- Being respectful of the adults in charge.
- Listening and trying to understand what others say.
- Dressing appropriately.
- Using good manners to act in a polite and respectful way.
- Thinking before I talk or act.
- Caring about others.
- Showing that I understand how other people feel.
- Doing things to help others.
- Keeping my hands to myself.
- Talking to someone and getting help if something is bothering me.
- Getting enough sleep so that I will feel good and do well in my activities.
- Being honest about what I say and do.
- Keeping my cabin and the camp grounds clean.
- Not calling names, threatening, picking on, blaming others, fighting or cussing.
- Using only those things which belong to me unless I have been given permission to use someone else's property.
